

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Contact: James Hallinan

February 25, 2016

(505) 660-2216

Office of the Attorney General Provides Good Government Training to Ukrainian Officials

Santa Fe, NM – Today, the Open Government Division of the Office of the Attorney General provided ethics and good government training to Ukrainian government and legal officials. The officials are in New Mexico in conjunction with the Santa Fe Council on International Relations and the training was provided at the Santa Fe Office of the Attorney General location.

The following officials took part in the Office of the Attorney General training:

Taras Hryhorovych Semkiv, Head of Department, Prosecutor General's Office of Ukraine

Zoriana Mykhailivna Semehen, Advising Assistant to a People's Deputy of Ukraine Ihor

Aleksieiev, Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine

Kateryna Yuriiivna Pernata, Advising Assistant to a People's Deputy of Ukraine Yaroslav

Markevych, Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine

Taras Petrovych Melnychuk, Advising Assistant to a People's Deputy of Ukraine Bereziuk O. R.,

Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine

Miroslav Volodymyrovych Lavrinok, Deputy Director, Coordinating Center for Providing Legal

Aid

Please see attached for photos of the delegation and Tania Maestas, director of the Open Government Division of the Office of the Attorney General.

###

