

New Mexico Office of the Attorney General

Information Systems Specialist/Investigator, Albuquerque

Full time

Job Reference # 00030143

The New Mexico Office of the Attorney General, Medicaid Fraud and Elder Abuse Division, an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) employer is seeking applicants for an “At Will” (not classified) Information Systems Specialist/Investigator position. An “At Will” position means any state office job or position of employment which is exempt from the service and the Personnel Act,” Section 10- 9-4 NMSA 1978, the employee serves at the pleasure of the New Mexico Attorney General. You will need to submit your resume using the specifically identified Job Reference ID number on the OAG website.

- Applicant must possess a working knowledge and experience with database design, development, implementation, management, and backup and recovery of database applications, including Microsoft Access and SQL Server.
- Applicant must also possess the skills to query, examine, and analyze data within Microsoft Access and SQL Server databases to contribute to an efficient, team-oriented investigation.
- Preference will be given to applicants that also possess the skills to perform a variety of advanced and highly specialized computer forensic processes against digital media including digital evidence preservation, forensic analysis, data recovery, and database examination.

New Mexico Office of the Attorney General

Salary is commensurate with experience. Resume, writing sample and three professional references must be received at the Office of the Attorney General by 5:00 p.m. on August 12, 2016. Applicants selected for an interview must notify the Attorney General's Office of the need for a reasonable accommodation due to a Disability.

Please send resumes to: The Office of the Attorney General
Attn: Patricia Padrino Tucker
E-mail: ptucker@nmag.gov
111 Lomas Blvd. NW, Ste. 300, Albuquerque, NM 87102