AG Balderas Remembers Thousands of Lives Lost in Terrorist Attacks 17 Years Ago

Albuquerque, NM – Today, Attorney General Hector Balderas issued the following statement in remembrance of the thousands of people who were killed in the terrorist attacks of September, 11th, 2001:

“Today, we remember the thousands of innocent men, women and children whose lives were cut short by the cowardly and vicious attacks on our nation 17 years ago. One of the darkest days in American history, September 11th, 2001, also showcased to the world what true American bravery and heroism looks like. Brave first responders ran into burning buildings, and saved countless lives. Selfless passengers on United Flight 93 rushed the cockpit of a hijacked flight, and crashed into a field in Pennsylvania, saving countless more. Those acts of bravery, and the lives taken on that tragic day, will never be forgotten.”
