AG Balderas Issues Statement on Supreme Court Decision to Limit
E.P.A.'s Ability to Restrict Power Plant Emissions

ALBUQUERQUE— Today, New Mexico Attorney General Hector Balderas issued the following statement after the Supreme Court decision limited the Environmental Protection Agency's ability to regulate carbon emissions from power plants:

"Despite the Supreme Court's decision, climate change presents a real danger to our communities, and we will continue the work to mitigate harms the energy industry creates to our environment," said Attorney General Balderas.
